

KLOve serves as my Christian music station in my local community. If KLOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming, I would not have a positive station to listen to. It is a very encouraging station and keeps me going throughout the day and evening. KLOVE needs to continue to provide a safe station for my family to listen to.